The Service for the Lord's Day

Psalm 131

<sup>1</sup> "My heart is not proud, LORD,
my eyes are not haughty;
I do not concern myself with great matters
or things too wonderful for me.

<sup>2</sup> But I have calmed and quieted myself,
I am like a weaned child with its mother;
like a weaned child I am content.

<sup>3</sup> Israel, put your hope in the LORD
both now and forevermore."

The writing of this hymn was spurred by a line from the poet T. S. Eliot: "In my end is my beginning."
 Shortly after this piece was completed, the author/composer's husband was diagnosed with what proved to be a terminal malignancy, and the original anthem version of this hymn was sung at his funeral.

INVITATION TO CONFESSION

Jesus said, "Come to me all you who are weary and are carrying heaven burdens and I will give you rest." His meaning extended far beyond manual labors. Jesus understands the weight and grief we bear from our sin. His gifts include bearing our sins for us, and therefore, through his love, we may freely confess our sins and find profound grace. In that assurance, let us come to him and confess. Let us pray....

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

All: Living, loving Lord, we have heard glorious Good News and it breaks our hearts in such good ways, to come closer to you. Though we hear your truth, we still trust in worldly truths. You offer us eternal life; still we cling to temporary things. Forgive us again, Lord! Help us to listen, learn, and turn to you. Renew the promise of our baptism and remind us of the life that death cannot destroy; through Jesus Christ our Risen Lord and Savior. Amen.

(Continue in silent prayer...)

RESPONSE

Lord, Have Mercy Upon Us

Dvořák

Lord, have mercy upon us; Lord, have mercy upon us.
 Christ, have mercy; Christ, have mercy;
 Christ, have mercy; Christ, have mercy.
 Lord, have mercy upon us; Lord, have mercy upon us.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: Hear the Good News! Christ is alive—we rejoice that our sins are forgiven. And since we are saved by grace, we must be gracious with others and give thanks for God's mercy in Christ forever. Amen.

All: Praise be to God for the mercy and eternal life we receive in Jesus Christ. We give God thanks, and will live as free people. Alleluia! Amen.

GLORIA PATRI

Glory Be to the Father

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
 As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH      Apostles' Creed                                      (Ecumenical version)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

GIVING THANKS TO GOD

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who are in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The author regarded this text as a communion hymn, a theme that seems eclipsed by the attention to Christ's exaltation, but a helpful reminder that such hymns are not always quiet and meek. This text is sung to various tunes, but this rousing Welsh one is a favorite choice.
